

LEGAL INFORMATION UPDATE ABOUT NRF ENTITIES

For accounting purposes, please save the following information in your database.

As of the 1st of July 2024:

NRF B.V. will continue as a holding/parent company under the name NRF Holding B.V.

Under this holding, the subsidiaries

- NRF Thermal Engineering B.V.
- and NRF DACH BNL B.V. will be organized,

Resulting in a clear separation in Industrial Engineering activities and Automotive Aftermarket activities.

WHY? NRF is growing rapidly. To anticipate to this, we want to make communication with customers more streamlined and effective. The new organizational split of Industrial and Automotive Aftermarket gives us the opportunity to optimize our service and offer a tailored approach by segment.
